

MARINE DIVISION

Marine Liabilities

Marine Liabilities combines coverage found in a commercial general liability (CGL) with coverage provided by a marine liability policy. To be eligible, 80% of the Insured's receipts must be derived from marine operations. The Policy(ies) can be tailored to cover a wide range of exposures, with many clients requiring multiple coverage classes in a single placement.

"A" Rated Carrier

Exclusive Program

Broad Coverages

Nationwide Coverage

Eligibility and Coverage Details

Coverages

- Ship Repairer's / Marine Construction / Marine Contractor's Legal Liability
- Wharfinger's (aka Landing Dock) Legal Liability
- Terminal Operator's Legal Liability
- Charterer's Legal Liability
- Stevedore's Legal Liability
- Excess Liabilities

Submission Data

- Details of Work Being Performed
- Geographical Scope (Area(s) of Operation).
- Completed Application
- Loss History (3 Year Minimum)

In-Appetite Risk Examples

- Marine Contractors
- Commercial Shipyards
- Off-Site Vessel Repairers
- Small/Mid-Size Dock Builders
- Vessel Operators

Geographic Scope

Prohibited Risks

- Product Manufacturers
- Marinas
- Excess Placements with Less Than $5,000,000 in Underlying Coverage

Get Appointed

